AUGUST IS FAMILY HISTORY MONTH

Winning Writers: Congratulations to members Beverley Toohey and Judith Neville whose stories have been selected to appear in Seniors' Stories Volume 5. This writing competition is an initiative of the NSW Department of Family and Community Services and the top 100 entries will be published in a book to be launched later in the year at Parliament House.

Please note that because the NSW & ACT Family History Groups' Conference will occur over the second weekend in October we will have our monthly meeting and AGM on 3rd Friday of the month in October. This will be on the 18th October.

July Meeting:

Three of our members produced fantastic accounts this week. Helen Fatouros spoke about her grandfather collection of post cards dating from 1902. Eric McLaughlin told us about life as an identical twin, including the funny aspects. Bob Lopresto informed us about some of the history of Garden Island. All three accounts were most entertaining for the members present. Philip Bell won raffle. This was a Calvin Klein set of scarf and gloves.

100s Club: Thank you all who have supported this fund-raiser.
The winners so far are:
Week 1: Eileen James
Week 2: Tom Regan
Week 3: Jan and Bob Gallagher
Week 4: Jocelyn Bakewell

Membership Renewal Forms for 2019-20 will be attached to the September issue of Kith & Kin. Emergency Contact Information as well as an email addresses are both optional items but advisable. Only financial members will be eligible to vote at our A.G.M. on 18th October so please complete your renewal before that date.

Kith & Kin: What a great job Lindsay Harden does editing & publishing our quarterly journal, Kith and Kin. Even with a broken arm Lindsay has done her best for us. Lindsay is seeking articles for the forthcoming edition of Kith & Kin. The articles can be small or large (up to 1000 words) about a resource you have used to help break-down a brick-wall, a humorous item found in a newspaper, write a story about a family member or submit your research interests.

First edition of Family Historian News has been produced by NSW Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages. Included in the July 2019 edition: Events and Exhibitions of Interest, the Burial Files podcast etc. This newsletter is free. There is a link to their newsletter on our website at:
https://capebanks.org.au/newsletters/ By clicking on the button, the file will open in a new browser window where you can view it on screen or save the file to your computer.
If members wish to subscribe to the newsletter they will find details at the end of the newsletter. By clicking on the contact us link, your email software should open up so you can send the registry an email and ask to be added to the mailing list. Add Subscribe to Newsletter in the Subject section.

The Women's Weekly is now available on Trove. This is the link: https://trove.nla.gov.au/aww/covers If you browse covers you can select decade and year. Then you can find the article which you wish to read. The first edition was 10th June 1933. Also available on Trove now is The Rugby League News from 1920 through to the 1973 grand final. It is packed with team photos, news and gossip as well as official team line-ups for each match.
